Book Signing 1426

In an effort to help stop the spread of the Coronavirus, IBEW Local Union 1426 will now allow book signing by email. We will temporarily allow members to originally sign books 1 & 2 by filling out this form and emailing it to resign@ibew1426.org.

Book 1, if you are working outside the Local and fall off the Book, fill out the information below and email it to us from another IBEW Local.

Book 2, must have their home local send us a copy of your basic information including your, First middle and last name, Address, City, State, Zip, phone number (home and Cell) Email address, classification, along with a current travel letter and a copy of a paid-up dues receipt along with your basic information below. We ask that it comes from your home local to keep your personal information secure.

Book signing forms received during normal business hours will be registered by the timestamp of the email. Any forms received after hours will go on at the end of the book on the day we receive it. Signing books by email is temporary and may be terminated at any time.

Prior to signing in another Local either by email or fax this form must be filled out, in person, and sent with the requirements of that Local.
